

Overall commentary on proposal:

This is a good example of how to put together a workable title. The proposal demonstrates the thought process of the learner in reaching their decision, as well as what they are hoping to achieve. The outline explains how they intend to work through their project in a way that suggests they have a good chance of achieving success.