

Withdrawal Notice: Cambridge O Level Design and Communication (7048)

We currently offer Cambridge O Level CDT: Design and Communication (7048) in the November examination series.

We also offer Cambridge O Level Design & Technology (6043) in the November examination series.

To align with current educational practice in design subjects and to ensure good progression to Cambridge International AS & A Level Design & Technology (9705), we are withdrawing Cambridge O Level CDT: Design and Communication (7048). We are replacing this qualification with a Graphic Products option within Cambridge O Level Design & Technology (6043).

The last exam for Cambridge O Level CDT: Design and Communication (7048) will be in November 2027. From 2028, schools can enter candidates for the revised Cambridge O Level Design & Technology (6043) qualification.

The revised syllabus for Cambridge O Level Design & Technology (6043) for assessment in 2028 will be published in September 2025.
