- (d) Use Text 1 to summarise the reasons why community repair is a good solution to the issue of electrical waste.

Answer in about 40 words using continuous prose.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

[4]

(e) Use your own words to explain what the writer means in Text 1 by each of the words or phrases in bold:

- (i) The Repair Café concept was initiated by Martine Postma, who in October 2009 organised the very first Repair Café in Amsterdam (paragraph 1).

..... [1]

- (ii) Secondly, it is not seen as an exciting activity; it's not held in high esteem (paragraph 4).

..... [1]

(f) Use Text 2 to explain two ways in which the volunteers have benefited from volunteering at community repair cafés.

- (g) Write an email to your principal persuading them that the school should start a community repair centre to help local people to repair rather than replace electrical items.

Use your own words to write your email based on what you have read in Section B, and also include your own ideas.

In your email you should:

- outline the importance of repairing electrical items rather than replacing them
- explain and justify why it would be good for your school.

You are advised to write about 120–150 words.
